FALL
1966 . . .

Fall 1966 marked the official beginning of Central High School. In early September, students entered CHS for the first time and immediately began adjusting to new surroundings, making new friends, renewing old friendships, and taking advantage of the many new opportunities given them to prepare for a brighter future.

Fall 1966 also marked a beginning at Central High School in the fields of academics, social activities, athletics, service, and spirit, and CHS students excelled in each of these areas. Academically, they were provided advanced equipment, new techniques, and vast opportunities. Social activities served to strengthen our school by uniting her students. In athletics, our teams excelled and were worthy of pride. A new and enthusiastic spirit at Central contributed to the molding of an outstanding student body, dedicated to the promotion of the welfare of all and the betterment of our school through unselfish service.

Let us then take a brief look at Central High School in her first year. Throughout the following pages, let us seek to find how she has advanced in all her endeavors from fall 1966 . . . A BEGINNING!

Academically, Central High School is one of the most up-to-date schools of secondary education in the state. Her facilities are modern, her teachers are of the highest caliber, and her students are observant, eager to learn, and studious. They advance in all aspects of education, both physical and mental, and are willing to work to improve their productivity.

Students enjoy the Student Council sponsored Christmas Dance

Students feel an increased degree of unity and friendliness through social activities. In 1966 this was especially true, as CHS students, in the social aspects of school life, were molded into the active, solid student body that was, for Central High School, her first.

BRUCE JORDAN LEADS CHS AS PRINCIPAL

A MESSAGE FROM OUR PRINCIPAL:

February 3, 1967

To the Senior Class of 1967, the first graduating class of Central High School, my best wishes for you in the future. As you prepare to leave this school, we ask that you search your hearts to rediscover again and again those things that give true meaning to life.

Your education, whether formal or informal, has just begun. It will continue throughout your life. Be sure that each decision that you make will help to build your most priceless possession, your character. Remember, you will accomplish exactly the height that your friends entrust to you.

Please remember also that every person strives in his own way to do something great. We each dream of doing great things but often fail to do the little things. Each of us should always strive each day to do some of the little things to make this world a more joyous place in which to live.

Again, may I wish to each of you the peace, happiness, and satisfaction for which you seek.

Sincerely,

Bruce C. Jordan

DEDICATED CHS FACULTY ON THE MOVE

The faculty at Central is one of the most dedicated groups of educators to be found anywhere. As we see on these pages, CHS's faculty members are actively engaged in many activities—inside and out of the classroom. In their work, they daily render an invaluable service—the preparation of youth for an adult world.

BASIC SUBJECTS OFFER BROAD EDUCATIONAL

New math desks aid student instruction

Overhead projectors are some of many new devices used in English Department

Artificial respiration is demonstrated to health class as part of first aid program

PPORTUNITIES

Courses required of all students at Central include English, math, science, physical education, and health. Four units of English are required of every student. Each student must have one unit of science and one unit of math. One unit in physical education, taken daily by all students, and health, taken as a full year course, are prerequisites for graduation.

Many new pieces of equipment allow teachers at Central to bring into the classroom various facets of education heretofore only minor parts of their program.

Exercises are part of regular routine in both boys' and girls' physical education program (above)

Many experiments conducted by "scientists"

VOCATIONAL COURSES ARE VARIED

Sewing is important aspect of home economics program

Welding is one of many skills acquired by Vocational-Agriculture students

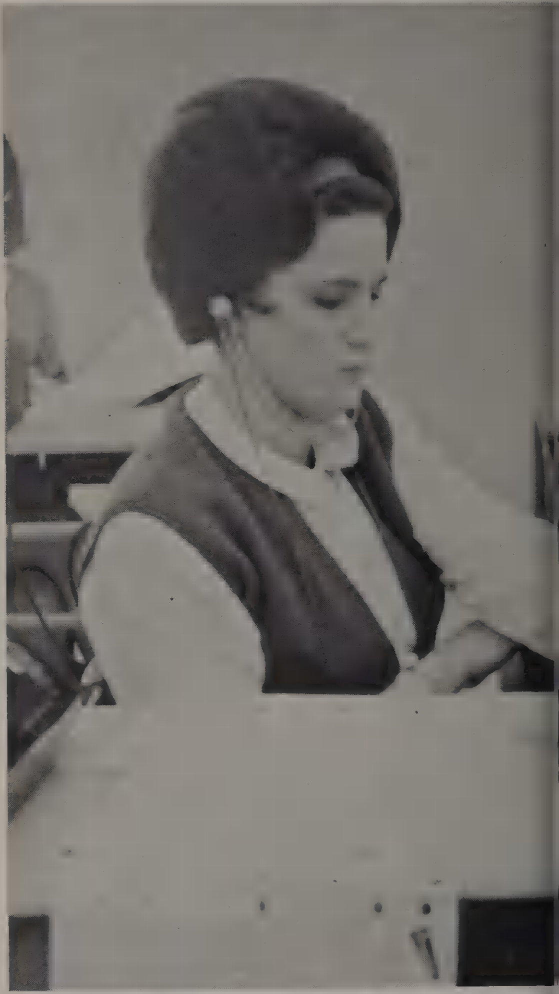
Central is able this year to offer a wide variety of vocational courses, from home economics to drafting, from vocational-agriculture to distributive education, from secretarial-occupations to automotive mechanics, and from business to clerical work. Here the individual student can acquire many skills and trade experiences.

Fully-equipped kitchens allow cooking experience for girls

Shop work with automotive parts makes for an advanced auto-mechanics course (right)

CENTRAL STUDENTS LEARN MANY TRADES

Distributive Education students get on-the-job experience from outside part-time work in local businesses

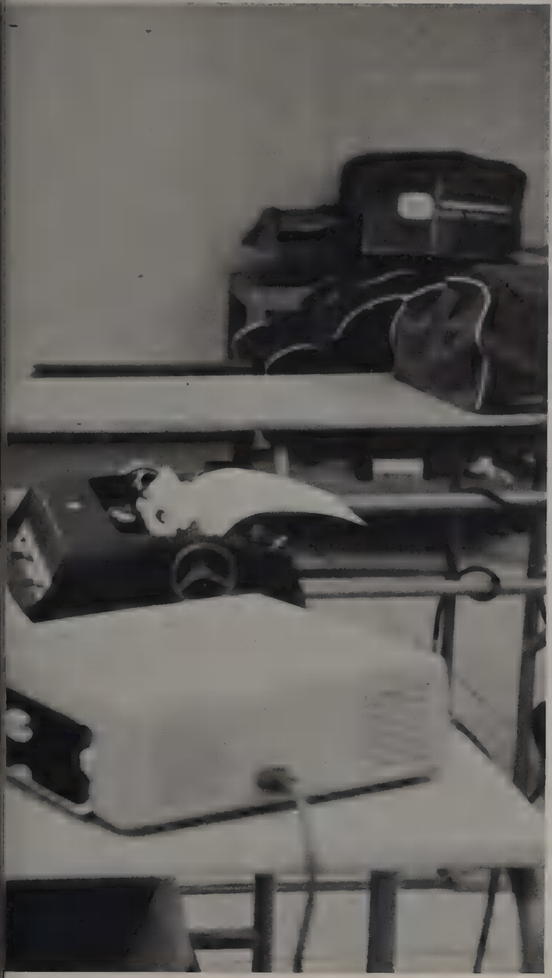


Dictaphones and IBM electric typewrite

Typing, general business, bookkeeping, and shorthand are among many business opportunities at CHS

Filing is part of clerical studies

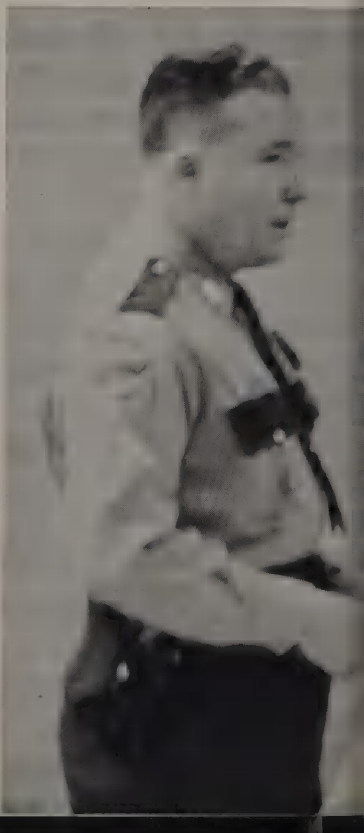
SKILLS IN VOCATIONAL COURSES



ovide advanced office training

Drawing skills obtained in drafting course

Social studies, with the aid of maps and globes, is an important study at CHS



SCHOOL PROGRAM ENRICHED BY MANY ELECTIVES

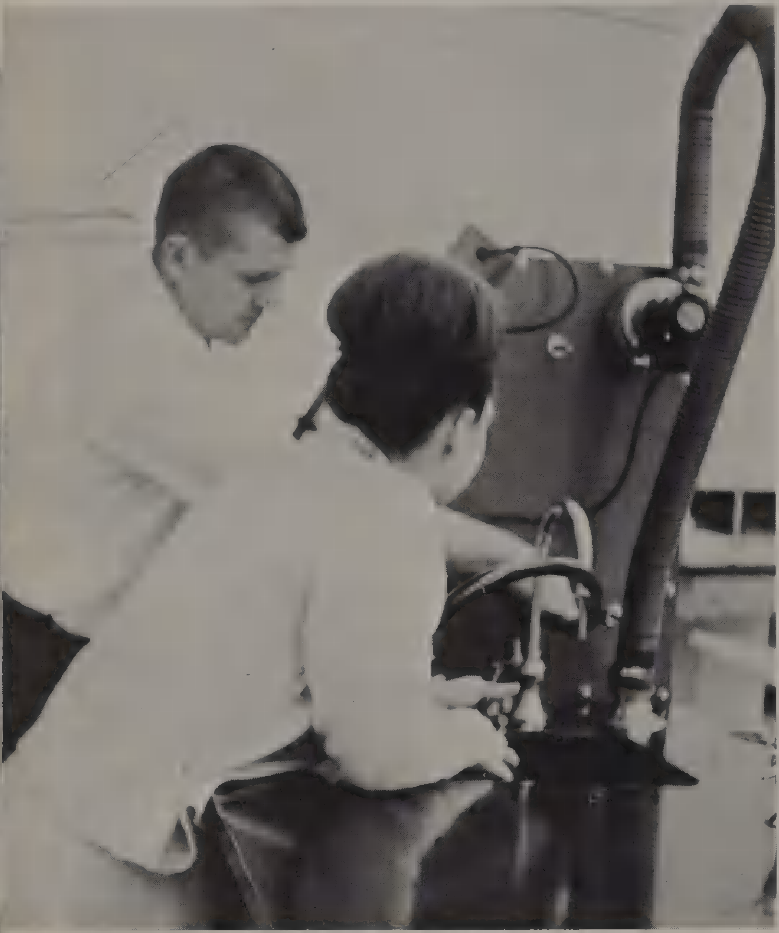
Central's band course offers advanced musical opportunities

Students taking tests for drivers' license through driver education course (below)

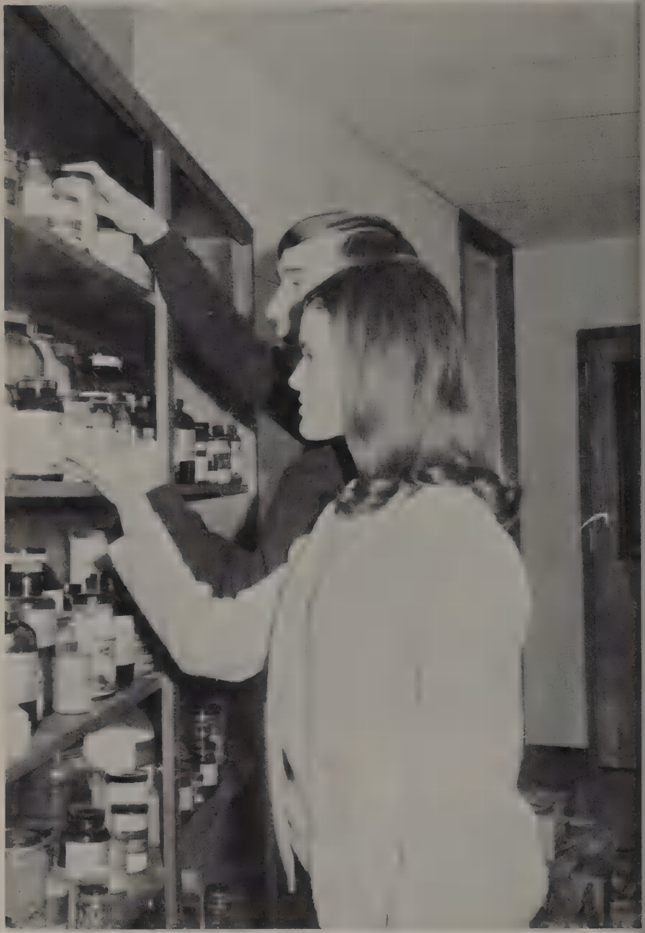
Electives offered at Central are: social studies, including government, economics, and history; foreign language, including two years of French and Spanish; band; chorus; math, including algebra, geometry, and advanced math; science, including chemistry, biology, and physics; and driver's education.

Foreign language course is upgraded by language lab well equipped with tapes and recordings (far left)

ELECTIVES



New chemistry equipment is explained to student



Chemistry stock room is equipped with much new laboratory equipment and many chemicals needed for lab experiments

LIBRARY, GUIDANCE ARE AIDS TO STUDENTS

The CHS Library—from floor . . . . . . to shelves for use

The Library of Central High is a Materials Center which contains many kinds of learning materials, including more than 6,000 books, audio-visual equipment, and many other aids to learning. The Library is a superb storehouse of literary and reference works.

The Guidance Office is well stocked with material from many colleges and about many jobs and is open daily for use of students.

The Guidance Office is used by many students for educational and occupational information

OFFICE STAFF KEEPS CENTRAL MOVİNG

Mrs. Melton takes a call

MRS. KAY MELTON

MRS. DOROTHY BLEDSOE

Perhaps the most burdensome tasks of an educational institution are those which are performed by the office staff workers, cooks, custodians, and bus drivers. They transport students to and from school, provide their meals while at school, keep our building in excellent condition, and in general keep the business of our school moving and in order. To them we all owe our sincere appreciation.

Office girls assist Mrs. Melton

Mrs. Bledsoe busies herself keeping an accurate record of Central's finances

COOKS, CUSTODIANS KEEP STUDENTS HAPPY

Central High School's cooks: Mrs. Eunice Williams, Manager; Mrs. Senna Blackwell; Mrs. Emma Cox; Mrs. Margaret Torrence; Mrs. Otie Wilson; Mrs. Anna Solsbee; Mrs. Laura Lovelace

Central students make the rush for buses as another day closes. Fifteen buses, driven by excellent and likable drivers transport nearly all CHS students to school and from school five days a week.

. . . A CLOSING MESSAGE

Central High School has had her beginning. As this her first year closes, she prepares to continue through the years into the unknown future. But she continues with a [illegible] destination—the attainment [illegible]

Vice-President [illegible] once advised a young [illegible] to enter public service [illegible] each new endeavor [illegible] tion to achieve—[illegible] but excellence." [illegible] as she endeavors to progress [illegible] the future, must also [illegible] mere adequacy, but [illegible]

CHS's beginning [illegible] may the fresh, exu[illegible] beginning never su[illegible] begins to continue to higher [illegible] goals, may we express our [illegible] that the students whose duty it [illegible] to lead her to those goals do [illegible] with the true Charger spirit—a spirit that will demand only the best for their alma mater.
